

1998 - 2000

Environmental orientation to school teachers and students. Teachers and Students in 75 schools in Coimbatore District were trained in environment protection.

Health and Hygiene programs were conducted in 30 Tribal villages of Anaikatty area. Improved awareness and adoption of safe sex practices by women in the area of reproductive health. (ANC, PNC institutional delivery, feeding practices and immunization). Health awareness through cultural practices, was given to the women and girls in Tholampalayam and Karamadai Panchayths.

Education to unreached tribal children was provided by establishing two special schools at Tholampalayam and Karamadai Panchayths.

